WONDERFUL EFFECT OF TAXATION On Thursday morning 17th June '11, when preparing to leave in the evening Boat, for N. York for the 3d time this senson, I was served with a notice of being assessed in the sum of $600, for my Faculty as a Merchant, for the ensuing year, for seiting goods cheap to the People; the shock was so electric that it flashed through the imagination, flumning the only avenue whereby an escape could be affected, but fortunately as it terminately as ed through the imagination, illumining the odly avenue whereby an escape could be allie-ted, but fortunately as it terminated, the amount was again reduced to the low Tax sum, of $400, which still being three times higher than that of any other individual is rated in the state, made it necessary to proceed with the atmost velocity, in the revealed, confirmedly systematic course of the Up and Doing Quick and Cheap for Cash and No Imprisonment for Debt way without any varying or deviation other than an increased speed straightahead as the theoretical course of over 19 years study and experiment in buying and selling goods cheap will heyond all queston, result correctly in being put into full operation in the known and skilled manner in which it will now be done and as may be seen and profited by, by all the lovers, admirers and wishers of Fashionable necessary good goods of which there is now the arentest known variety in all the departments of merchandize, with the system of by ying as Cheap, Cheap, Cheap as Howard, put fully into practice by this same Howard himself, the true originator of the system, who for reason of increased employment deems it not necessary to say much about the way of doing well by customers, as he has the largest figures patent ever given in the Green. Mountain State under official authority of his qualifications and faculty for selling the most and of course implied cheap according to quality, all of which, with the Goods, is most respectfully submitted to the People by their Authorized agent, just arrived from New York.

PHUMORS! HUMORS!! 20 HE attention of that part of the community who are afflicted with Sait Rheum, Lapresy, St. Andrewy's Fre, Eryspinias, or Scrobia on any kind, are needed to a new compound, which, by an internal application, process a sure safe and complete remedy for all kinds of humons. This wonder I me acine is prepared by Mr. Charles Jones, of Claremont, N. H. who for many years was been afficied with the leptony in its worst possible forms and by unweared exertions in experimenting upon his own person, has at last found a complete cure. This compound has necessarily desired the complete cure. cer failed of doing its important work where a fair trial has been made, and directions followed. Certificate after certificate might be here had before the public as to its wonderful effects, but the reader is referred to those who keep the article for sale where particulars and rescommendations may be had. So confident is the discoverer of this valuable medicine that he the discoverer of this valuable medicine that he makes bold to state to the world that a complete cure is warranted where directions are fully complete with and a fair trial made. From the very many certificates of its effects let the following suffice.

'As a philanthropist. I feel in duty bound to state, that I applied to Mr. Charles Jones, of Claremont, N.
